International Songs from 1919 to 1929

The war is over! And it's time to dance and get a new look. It's flappers time! Dating time begun with the 1920s and a sense of freedom into the lives of a growing middle class.

Radio Days performs a wide variety of songs from those times from different countries, from the American "Yes, we have no bananas", or "Ain't she sweet" to french like "Mon Pays et Paris" popularized by Josephine Baker, or cuban song "El Manisero".

Listen to early jazz and blues classics in songs like Why don't you do right and It Don't Mean a Thing. Remember romantic songs like Whispering or Sous les Ponts de Paris, dance to the Charleston or Fox Trot and enjoy some vintage latin classics.

TWO PACKAGES
